CURIOUS WILL OF A CITIZEN OF TOPEKA

Gives Property to Tenants Who Have Paid Rent Promptly and Cuts Off
Wife and Children With $5.

What is perhaps the most curious will ever made by a resident of Topeka is that drawn up a few weeks ago by Charles Oehms, a retired farmer living at 715 Chestnut street, says the Topeka Herald. Mr. Oehms owns ten cottages in Topeka and lives upon the rental of these. His will cuts his wife and children off with $5 each, and to each of his tenants who has lived in his house and paid the rent for three years continuously prior to Mr. Oehms' death, the house is to be given.

Mr. Oehms explained the purpose of his will to a Herald representative: "My tenants are keeping me now, and I think that I should give them back when I am dead, what they have paid me. I cannot use the money then and they can. At the present time only two of my tenants have lived long enough in the houses which they occupy to enable them to benefit by the provision of my will should I die today. But I do not feel like dying just yet. In fact I enjoy living and intend to keep at it for several years. I hope that all my tenants will have a chance to benefit by my will."

The provision of the will which relates to the giving away of the houses reads: "Section third—It is further my will that at the time of my death, if there be any tenant in any one of my houses in the city of Topeka, which tenant shall have lived in any one of my houses continuously for three years next preceding my death, and shall have absolutely and faithfully paid me all the rent becoming due for such property during such three years, then in such case, it is my will that such house and premises are and be by virtue hereof willed, devised and delivered to such tenant or his heirs, absolutely."

Provides Also For Widows.
In the second paragraph of section three, provision is made for the leaving of a house to a tenant in case the tenant is a widow or an heir of a man who has lived three years in the house and the widow or heir continues to live in the house after the death of the former tenant.

FISHERMEN'S FUN ON FLORIDA COAST

THEY HARPOON A WHIP RAY
MEASURING OVER SIX FEET
FROM TIP TO TIP.

The Miami Record says: A jolly party of tourists was out to the fishing banks yesterday on the Barracouta with Capt. Thompson.

They spent an enjoyable day on the water and caught a large number of fish of various kinds.

During the trip Capt. Thompson harpooned a whip ray which was so large that it took almost the entire party to land it on board the launch. The monster fish weighed at least four hundred pounds and measured 6 1/2 feet from tip to tip of wings. Its whip, or tail, measured over six feet in length. It was placed on exhibition at Royal Palm docks after the launch came in and was viewed by hundreds of people. This is the largest whip ray ever caught here, except one caught two years ago.

A party of tourists who believe there is more sport in fishing with the rod and reel than any other method, were out in the launch Whiz the other day and landed over thirty kingfish, which for evenness in size was a fine catch. All the fish, except one, weighed 28 to 32 pounds each and were taken with rod and reel.

SAW MILL DEVELOPMENT DURING PAST FIFTY YEARS

THE INDUSTRY AS IT WAS FIFTY YEARS AGO, AND AS IT IS TO-DAY.

Bagdad, Feb. 11.—Fifty years ago the firm of E. E. Simpson & Co., located at Bagdad, successors of Forsyth & Simpson, was one of the largest, wealthiest and most successful saw mill and planing mill firms in the South.

The members of the firm were E. E. Simpson, Allan Simpson, Benjamin Overman, Benjamin W. Bushnell, James Creary and R. M. Bushnell. They owned their labor, and each member was assigned to his department of the business.

The logs were cut and put into the water to await a freshet of high water to float them to within reach of the mill, requiring from six to twelve months from the cutting of the logs in the woods to the sawing of them in the mill.

The mill was an upright gang saw mill with a capacity of about twenty thousand feet per day. The company cut almost exclusively flooring, ceiling and weather boards, which was stacked for six months and then planed and shipped by vessels to New Orleans and Texas.

The company owned their lumber yard in New Orleans, which was managed by E. W. Dorr, father of Hawks and J. W. Dorr, of Pensacola.

There was then located upon the several creeks emptying into the Blackwater river a number of small single upright water saw mills making from one to one and a half thousand feet each per day, which was all bought by the company, dressed and shipped.

They say that Prof. I. E. Allen was an expert in those two men mills of that day.

Today the Stearns & Culver Lumber Co. are operating here in Bagdad one of the largest saw and planing mills in the south, the capacity of which is more than five times that of the old E. E. Simpson & Co. plant of fifty years ago.

They have a railroad running into the same sections then logged by E. E. Simpson & Co., and expect soon to reach out into vast tracts of timber that are almost virgin forests. Their log train can leave the mill in the morning and return in the evening with a thousand logs. The logs can be cut in the woods, hauled to the mills, lumber cut, dried, dressed and delivered in Cincinnati or Chicago in fifty days.

Fifty years ago it took E. E. Simpson & Co. twelve to eighteen months to cut, dry and dress and deliver lumber in New Orleans. The Stearns & Culver Lumber Co. also carry a stock of about ten million of feet of export lumber.

Dr. Howell is fifty-one years old, and his income from New York and Pittsburg realty operators and holdings is said to be not less than $250,000 a year. A year ago he purchased three of New York's most fashionable apartment houses for nearly $5,000,000. He paid $3,000,000 in cash and the balance in Pittsburg real estate. Miss Whistler and the Rev. Mr. Howell are now at Palm Beach, Fla. The marriage will take place at the Whistler home here.
